

Chiksan[®] Loading Arms for other Applications

Viscous Product Unloading Systems - VPUS

Chiksan Viscous Product Unloading Systems – VPUS – are arms specifically designed for the unloading of petroleum products that can solidify at a low ambient temperature. The VPUS arm is equipped with a 2” recirculation line to heat the solidified product until it reaches the required viscosity for unloading to take place.

Model 474

